Preamble

In the course of their millennia-old history, the Vietnamese people, working diligently, creatively, and fighting courageously to build their country and defend it, have forged a tradition of unity, humanity, uprightness, perseverance and indomitableness for their nation and have created Vietnamese civilization and culture.

Starting in 1930, under the leadership of the Communist Party of Vietnam formed and trained by President Ho Chi Minh, they waged a protracted revolutionary struggle full of hardships and sacrifices, resulting in the triumph of the August Revolution. On 2 September 1945, President Ho Chi Minh read the Declaration of Independence and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam came into existence. In the following decades, the people of all nationalities in our country conducted an uninterrupted struggle with the precious assistance of friends throughout the world, especially the socialist countries and the neighboring countries, achieved resounding exploits, the most outstanding ones being the historic Dien Bien Phu and Ho Chi Minh campaigns, emerged victorious of the two wars of aggression waged by the colonialists and imperialists, liberated the country, reunified the Fatherland, and brought to completion the people’s national democratic revolution. On 2 July 1976, the National Assembly of reunified Vietnam decided to change the country’s name to the Socialist Republic of Vietnam; the country entered a period of transition to socialism, strove for national construction, and unyieldingly defended its frontiers while fulfilling its internationalist duty.

In successive periods of resistance war and national construction, our country adopted the 1946, 1959, and 1980 Constitutions.

Starting in 1986, a comprehensive national renewal advocated by the 6th Congress of the Communist Party of Vietnam has achieved very important initial results. The National Assembly has decided to revise the 1980 Constitution in response to the requirements of the new situation and tasks.

This Constitution establishes our political regime, economic system, social and cultural institutions; it deals with our national defense and security, the fundamental rights and duties of the citizen, the structure and principles regarding the organization and activity of State organs; it institutionalizes the relationship between the Party as leader, the people as master, and the State as administrator.

In the light of Marxism-Leninism and Ho Chi Minh’s thought, carrying into effect the Program of National Construction in the period of transition to socialism, the Vietnamese people vow to fully preserve the tradition of patriotism, unite millions as one, uphold the spirit of self-reliance and self-improvement in the building of the country, pursue a foreign policy of independence, sovereignty, peace, friendship and cooperation with all nations, strictly abide by the Constitution, and win ever greater successes in their effort to renovate, build and defend their Fatherland.

CHAPTER I: THE POLITICAL REGIME

Article 1

The Socialist Republic of Vietnam is an independent and sovereign country enjoying unity and territorial integrity, including its mainland, islands, territorial waters and air space.
Article 2

The Socialist Republic of Vietnam is a law-governed socialist State of the people, by the people and for the people. All State power belongs to the people and is based on an alliance between the working class, the peasantry, and the intelligentsia.

The State power is unified, with legislative, executive and judicial powers being delegated to State agencies which shall coordinate with each other in their exercise.

Article 3

The State guarantees and unceasingly promotes the people's mastery in all aspects, with a view to achieving the objectives of prosperous people, strong country, equitable, democratic and civilized society, in which all people enjoy an abundant, free and happy life and are given the conditions for the full development of their potential; and severely punishes all acts of infringing upon the interests of the Fatherland and the people.

Article 4
